PROVOST AND SR VICE PRESIDENT FOR ACADEMIC AFFAIRS - Office of the Provost & Sr. VP for Academic Affairs

Brief Description: As the University's chief academic officer, the Provost provides vision and leadership for all academic programs. The Provost reports to the President and acts as chief executive officer in the President's absence. The Provost's responsibilities include planning, educational policy, and program assessment and budget oversight. Reporting directly to the Provost are the Deans of the Newark College of Engineering, the New Jersey School of Architecture, the College of Science and Liberal Arts, the School of Management, the College of Computing Sciences, and the Albert Dorman Honors College; the Dean of Graduate Studies; the University Librarian, and the Chief Information Officer.

Requirements: The successful candidate must possess an earned doctorate, a terminal degree in one's field, or qualifications for appointment to the rank of professor; a respected record of teaching, research, and scholarship; a history of successful administrative leadership at the level of dean, vice president, or an equivalent level of responsibility; evidence of excellent financial and human resource management skills; demonstrated skill in team-building with the ability to recruit and hire key personnel; evidence of commitment to teaching, research, community service, and economic development; ability to maintain collegial relationships; and a commitment to diversity. Applications: Consideration of applications will continue until the appointment is made. Applications should include a letter and current resume. Materials should be addressed to the University's retained search consultant: Heidrick & Struggles, Ellen E. Brown, 303 Peachtree Street, Suite 4300, Atlanta, Georgia 30308; phone (404) 577-2410; fax (404) 577-4048; email njit@heidrick.com

Union Affiliation: NON-ALIGNED
Pay Range: Salary commensurate with education and experience

NJIT is an Equal Opportunity Employer